

Park St. Edition in action

Development construction,
well underway

"INNOVO BUILD" leads project construction

Innovo Build has officially mobilized on-site to begin construction of the commercial phase, marking a new chapter in the project's evolution.

This transition signals not only progress, but a deepened commitment to delivering a vibrant, residential mixed-use destination that reflects the highest standards of design, functionality, and urban integration.

Partnership built on Legacy

Backed by a global legacy of constructing iconic landmarks, Innovo Build brings decades of expertise to Park St. Edition.

As the commercial phase takes shape, clients and stakeholders can look forward to a future defined by elevated experiences, strategic value, and timeless impact powered by the vision and craftsmanship of Park St. & Innovo Build.
